How to Film a Talking Head Interview

Step 1. Place the camera on a tripod.

Step 2. Adjust the camera's height so the subject's eyes line up with the top third line on the screen.

Figure 1. Example of positioning eyes one-third from the top of the frame. Source: https://www.linkedin.com/pulse/how-apply-rule-thirds-your-interviews-rebecca-wilson

Step 3. Place the subject slightly off-center, leaving space in the direction they will look.

Figure 2. Example of positioning your subject. Source: https://www.videoknowhow.co.uk/rule-of-thirds

Step 4. Click on the subject's face to auto-focus on them.

Step 5. Increase or decrease camera brightness until the subject's face is clear.

Step 6. Press the record button and film for 5-10 seconds.

Step 7. Play back the clip to ensure everything is set up correctly.

Step 8. Click record and film the full interview.